Community College of Baltimore County

FAMILY LITERACY ENGLISH FOR SPEAKERS OF OTHER LANGUAGES (ESOL)

The Family Literacy ESOL Program for non-native English speaking parents is designed to help parents learn English language skills for life, work, and to help with their child’s education. The student must have a child 0–16 years old living in the home and enrolled in a Baltimore County Public School, the Judy Center of Baltimore County or Baltimore County Head Start.

No Class Cost – Grant Funded. Student book and workbook are not included.

Students must have unlimited internet access, a computer or tablet with camera and microphone or a smart phone.

Online ZOOM classes

Students need to attend one testing session on a CCBC campus the last day of class.

Due to COVID-19, placement testing and registrations are following the safety guidelines from the state and county. You must wear a mask at all times during the registration process.

Registration and Placement Locations and Times:

To register, all students must come to one of the “Walk-in Family Literacy ESOL Placement and Registration Locations.”
