Community College of Baltimore County

FAMILY LITERACY ENGLISH FOR SPEAKERS OF OTHER LANGUAGES (ESOL)

The Family Literacy ESOL Program for non-native English speaking parents is designed to help parents learn English language skills for life, work, and to help with their child’s education. The student must have a child 0–16 years old living in the home and enrolled in a Baltimore County Public School, the Judy Center of Baltimore County or Baltimore County Head Start.

*No Class Cost – Grant Funded. Student book and workbook are not included.

In-Person and ZOOM Classes are available.

All students will need a smart phone.

For online Zoom Classes, students must have a computer, with a camera and microphone, and unlimited internet access and a smart phone.

Due to COVID-19, placement testing and registrations are following the safety guidelines from the state and county. You must wear a mask at all times during the registration process.
