BCPS student artwork to be featured in Maryland High School Juried Art Exhibition

Works created by 12 students from Carver Center, Milford Mill Academy, and Towson High School

Towson, MD – Artwork by 12 students from George Washington Carver Center for Arts and Technology, Milford Mill Academy, and Towson Town High School will be featured in the Maryland High School Juried Art Exhibition.

- McKayla Alark, Grade 11, Milford Mill Academy
- Tiffany Bell, Grade 11, Milford Mill Academy
- Heisy Blanco-Martinez, Grade 11, Milford Mill Academy
- Weiya Carter, Towson High School
- Sonya Harding, Towson High School
- Hahmini Lewis, Grade 12, Carver Center
- Faith Matthews, Grade 12, Carver Center
- Helen McConville, Grade 12, Carver Center
- Socorra Reggie, Grade 12, Carver Center
- Ella Schroder, Towson High School
- Britney Simbana-J, Grade 12, Carver Center
- Emily Slade, Towson High School

The exhibition will be available for public viewing at the Arts Program Main Gallery at University of Maryland Global Campus, from Sunday, January 22, through Sunday, April 2, 2023. The gallery is located at 3501 University Boulevard East, Adelphi, MD 20783 (on the lower level of the Marriott Hotel and Conference Center), and it is open from 9 a.m. – 9 p.m. every day.

An opening reception, free and open to the community, will take place on Sunday, February 12, 2023, from 3 – 5 p.m. During the reception, winners will be announced, and awards presented. More information can be found on the UMGC Arts Program website.
Baltimore County Public Schools, the nation’s 22nd largest school system, is focused on raising the bar and closing gaps to prepare our students for the future. Thanks to innovative and talented leaders, teachers, staff, and students, BCPS celebrates many honors.